FIELDING IS SENT TO PRISON

RECALLS HIS PECULIAR CONDUCT WHILE IN IDAHO.

He Will Serve From One to Fourteen Years in the Washington State Penitentiary for Forgery.

Sheriff Wilson was advised yesterday that W. F. Fielding, who was recently taken from Ogden to Seattle, to answer a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses and forgery, had pleaded guilty in the metropolis of Washington and had been given a ranging sentence of from one to fourteen years in the penitentiary. It will be remembered that Fielding had a somewhat brilliant criminal record in Ogden, having secured a plethora of currency from one of the local banks, under false pretenses and using the money on a rose-tinted honeymoon trip with a bride whom he captured in this city. He was arrested while traveling in California with his young wife and brought back to Ogden, where it developed that he had a wife and child living in Salt Lake City. His bride of a few weeks had the marriage annulled and Fielding's mother settled his crooked transaction with the bank and prosecution for the crime was dropped. At this point, however, Sheriff Wilson rearrested Fielding for a forgery charge in Seattle and he was taken there and finally sentenced to the penitentiary last Tuesday morning.

WHITE SLAVE PAYS HIS FINE

PAUL CHEERY ESCAPES FROM THE CLUTCHES OF LAW.

Although His Bail Was Fixed at $100 — Ed Dunn Fined $10 for Begging on the Streets.

Police court was devoid of special interest yesterday other than forfeiture of $100 by an alleged parasite of the red-light district, the money evidently having been furnished by some admiring female for the liberation of her sweetheart. Paul Cheery was the name given by the individual and he was charged with vagrancy. Knowing his true character and the nature of his manner of living, the officers were not disposed to deal leniently with the prisoner nor give him his liberty. The sum of $100 was demanded as bail, but despite the comparatively large amount, the money was speedily forthcoming from an unknown source and the fellow was released. The bail was declared forfeited upon the non-appearance of the defendant yesterday.

Pat O'Brien, E. L. Henzle and Frank Lloyd were arraigned on the charge of trespass preferred by Officer Shumaker of the Southern Pacific company. They pleaded guilty to the charge, whereupon the arresting officer stated that he had found the men in a car of apples, the seal on which, together with the ventilating screen, had been broken, and a quarter of a box of apples was missing. The men stated that the car was open when they entered, which the court admitted was always the case with trespassers arrested under the same circumstances. He stated that the property of the railroad companies must be protected the same as any other, but that he would make the fine a low one—$5 or five days in each case.

John Doe and George Malmn pleaded guilty to charges of drunkenness and were given the customary fine of $5 or five days each.

Ed Dunn, whose case of mendicancy was continued from Friday's session, was presented for sentence, this morning, a witness appearing against him who stated that Dunn had begged from him at two different times. The defendant stated that he was a railroad man and, being broke and more or less under the influence of liquor, he had approached several persons with whom he was acquainted and solicited from them. He asserted that it was positively his first offense of that nature.

The court told Dunn that he was a healthy specimen of manhood and had no excuse for begging from his fellow

LIFE AFTER DEATH

A problem of perennial interest is the one which concerns the survival of human personality after death. The world is not through with it yet. The sermons at the Congregational church during the next few Sunday evenings will deal with various phases of the question in the light of present thought. Can men believe in the future life? Ought they to believe in it? Are all men entitled to immortality?

OLD HOMESTEAD OF CARTER HARRISON BEING RAZED

Chicago, March 6.—Another landmark is being removed to make way for the modern apartment building. The old homestead of Carter Harrison, at one time considered one of the handsomest homes in this city, is in the hands of the wreckers. Not only was the old building the home of the Harrisons, but Mrs. Potter Palmer once lived there, it having been built by her father, H. H. Honore, in the early fifties. It also has been occupied by Samuel J. Walker, father of Judge Walker, and by members of the Kohlsaat family.

The first Carter Harrison purchased the residence from H. H. Honore in 1855, and the family used it almost continuously until 1872. At that time, Mr. Harrison was sent to congress, and for several succeeding years the house was rented, the family being either in Washington or abroad. Afterward, however, it again became the family home. It was in the broad hallway that Mr. Harrison, the mayor, was shot by Pendergast on the closing day of the world's fair.

William Preston Harrison announces that the entire property will be covered with apartments.

ARRESTED FOR SMOKING IN SUBWAY STATION

New York, March 6.—Louis Funcke, a poultry dealer, was the first man arrested under the new health ordinance, making it a misdemeanor to smoke or to carry lighted cigars, or pipes in the subway station. Funcke was arrested after a tussle with a special policeman. In the night court a magistrate discharged the prisoner with a reprimand. There has been a noticeable decrease in the smoking in the stations since the passage of the new law.

IMMIGRANTS FROM IRELAND NUMBER 16,431 IN 1908.

New York, March 6.—Figures issued by the Irish Emigration society show that, during the year 1908, there landed at the Port of New York from Ireland 16,431 persons. Of that number 6,990 were males, and 9,351 females; 1,978 were under 14 years of age; 14,579 were between 14 and 45 years of age, and 634 over 45 years of age.

Of this total number of arrivals here, more than half remained in the city while the rest were scattered throughout the United States, the greatest number going to Illinois. New Jersey came next and then Pennsylvania. The immigrants brought with them in cash nearly $500,000. During the year, ninety were barred from landing.
